

SCHOOL/PARENT/STUDENT COMPACT 2009-2010

In order for all Mission Bend students to reach their maximum potential the school, parents and students become partners and assume responsibility in the educational process.

The school staff will:	The parents will:	The student will:
Stress the importance to parents of having their students in school every day.	Monitor attendance knowing that after the second day without an excuse, the absence will become an unexcused absence and the parent will receive a court citation.	Come to school prepared to learn with the correct supplies, do their best and participate every day.
Provide a safe and risk free learning environment for students and parents.	Ensure students arrive at school and are picked up on time.	Be respectful, well-mannered and kind to others.
Provide necessary resources for learning.	Provide proper nutrition and rest.	Follow the school rules.
Provide open communication with parents and students.	Review homework with their child.	Be responsible for their actions.
Foster relationships, develop the mind, instill a love for learning, and help to build strong character.	Communicate with teachers and principals by listening and providing the school with any information important to their child's performance.	Encourage parents to come to school programs.
Provide opportunities for strong parental involvement.	Read notices sent home from school and respond as necessary.	Be responsible for giving parents notices sent home in a timely fashion.
Watch student performance and provide timely help for students in danger of not meeting state standards.	Make every effort to attend school meetings, workshops and conferences. Encourage students to attend tutorials when needed.	Attend needed tutorials regularly.
