

FAQs at First Colony Middle School

Can I walk my child to class on the first day or other days? On the first day of school you may walk them into the building but we will take care of your child after that as we have set procedures for seating and dismissing students by grade level.

What if my child arrives to school after 8:55 am? Prior to 9:05 your child will go straight to their 1st period class. After 9:05 am students will check in at the attendance office prior to going to class.

What if my child needs to leave early? Parents/Guardians, with a driver's license, may sign their child out at the attendance office. Please be sure to submit a note within five days of the absence in order for it to be excused.

What if my child loses a textbook? Students should check the lost and found outside of the AP Suite. If the book is not found, students should visit the AP suite to arrange payment for lost books and to receive a new one.

Can I change my child's transportation during the school day? Students are only allowed to ride the buses to which they are assigned. If a last minute change in transportation is required, please contact the front office at (281) 634-3240.

How do I get my child tested? Please contact your child's grade level counselor at (281) 634-3251.

What is the school's dress code policy? The First Colony Middle School dress code policy is the same as the district dress code guidelines. These can be found on in the district Parent/Student Handbook at www.fortbendisd.com/Domain/91.

Who do I speak to concerning my child's grade? Please contact your child's teacher to request a conference. The list of teachers at First Colony Middle School can be found online at www.fortbendisd.com/fcms.

Who do I speak to concerning an incident involving my child? Please contact the teacher whose classroom the incident occurred in or contact your child's grade level Assistant Principal. The contact information can be found at www.fortbendisd.com/fcms.

What if I know in advance that my child will be absent? Please contact our attendance clerk at (281) 634-3281 or email attendancefcms@fortbendisd.com. It is to your child's advantage to contact teachers and request assignments.
