~Quote of the Week~

THE SECRET OF HAVING
IT ALL IS
BELIEVING
YOU ALREADY DO.

thisislovelifequotes.net

Try not to overlook the little, GOOD things in your life like waking up each day, feeling your heart beating right inside your fragile chest. Good things like the fact that today, you get to live, to see another day, to look at the mirror and see hope. Good things like getting to go to work, talking to friends, and being able to see your beloved family.

Sometimes we neglect these simple things, moments, experiences because we're so dedicated in pursuing grander things and experiences.

We forget that the grandest moments of our lives are actually happening right in front of us – they are actually happening right now.

HBMS has STAAR POWER! Thank you to all of the parents who made the efforts to get their students to school on time, prepared, and ready to tackle the STAAR tests!

April is Autism Awareness Month

Autism now affects 1 in 68 children.
It is one of the fastest-growing developmental disorders in the U.S.
today. Autism costs a family $60,000 a year on average. There is no medical detection or cure for autism.
