program

Clements High School • Global Studies Academy

Preparing Students for a Global Tomorrow

“ Career success in fields such as business, government, media, communications, and banking requires global knowledge and proficiency in world languages. The Global Studies Academy (GSA) offers students a rigorous geography- and culture-enriched academic curriculum that prepares them for an interconnected world and a global economy. ”

GSA is recruiting incoming 9th graders living anywhere in Fort Bend ISD, including those zoned to Clements. Applicants are evaluated on their grades and course work in 7th and 8th grade, standardized test scores, discipline, attendance records, two teacher recommendations, an essay, and a personal interview.

Student BENEFITS

- Opportunities for international travel and participation in exchange programs
- Opportunities to use their language skills in the community through language clubs, language honor societies and service organizations.
- Greater Houston area field trips relevant to the languages and cultures the student is studying
- Opportunity to learn languages not offered at other FBISD campuses
- Leadership opportunities through the governing council
- Mentorship program for incoming students
- Summer and semester teaching opportunities
- Small school and community climate through a variety of Academy social and cultural events.

- Students in the Global Studies Academy will have an edge by benefiting from a focused curriculum of languages and social sciences through co-horted classes while following a rigorous global curriculum.
- Students will complete an Academy only Capstone Course senior year, culminating their specialized curriculum.

The languages include:

- Chinese
- French
- German
- Japanese
- Latin
- Spanish
