CCMR Graduation Cord

College Career and Military Readiness

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) has defined a set of indicators that students can earn to be considered college, career, or military-ready. Students who meet ONE of these CCMR indicators are considered "CCMR-met."

CCMR "met" determines whether a student takes a remedial class in college, has work-related skills and interests, and has potential success in the military, or uses the industry-based certification to improve overall employability straight out of high school.

CCMR readiness indicators include:

Earn an Associates
Degree

Enlist in the Armed Forces
Provide DD Form

Dear Student,

Congratulations! It is my pleasure to inform you of your acceptance to Houston Community College (HCC). You are now a part of the HCC family committed to your educational success.

HCC is proud to be a leader in innovation and student diversity. We are dedicated to helping you achieve academic success and fulfill your educational goals while you are a student at HCC. Whether you choose to earn a degree or certificate, transfer to a four-year university or decide to enter the workforce, we will provide you the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and skills to be successful in today's technological and global economy.

To begin the road to your successful college career, there are a couple of steps you need to complete in order to become officially enrolled as a student at HCC and register for classes.

1. Activate your student account

From the homepage www.hccs.edu, click on MY EAGLE Student Sign-ins and then First-time User. Follow the instructions to retrieve your web id and initial password.

Note: If you did not provide your social security number on your application, you will need to use the assigned number found at the top of this page.

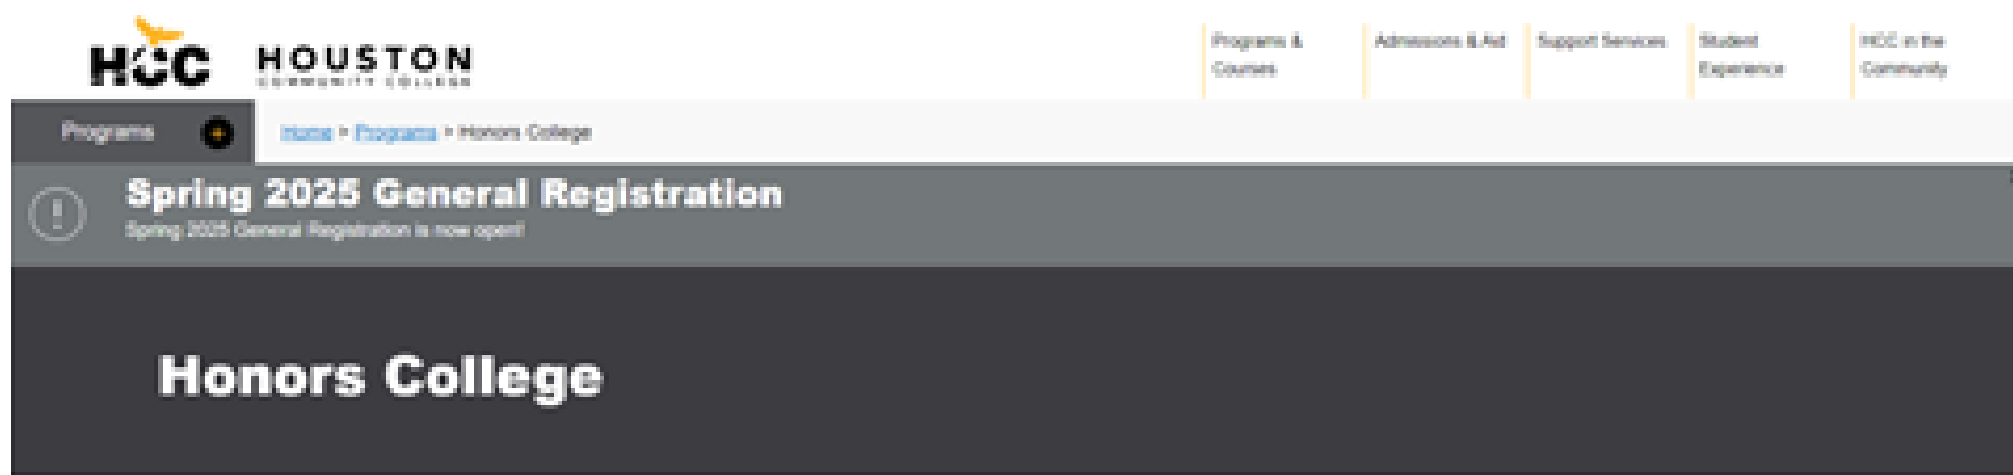

2. Complete registration process

Once signed in, you will see My Checklist which provides step-by-step instructions for completing the registration process.

Once again, I extend my congratulations on your acceptance to Houston Community College and welcome you to our family!

Sincerely,

Cesar Maldonado, Ph.D., P.E.
Chancellor
