

Accommodations Requests for PSAT/SAT and ACT

Students that are classified as special education, 504 and/or English Language Learner may be eligible to receive accommodations for the PSAT, SAT, AP and/or ACT exams. Accommodations must be requested through College Board for SAT, PSAT and AP exams or through ACT for the ACT exam. Attached is a chart with the SAT, PSAT, AP and ACT testing dates and deadlines to submit accommodations requests. Your student's counselor can help you with this process. The request only needs to be submitted one time for all high school testing. Therefore, if you have already submitted an accommodations request to College Board and/or ACT you do not need to submit it again.

Visit the College Board Students with Disabilities website at <https://accommodations.collegeboard.org/> for details about PSAT, SAT and AP exam accommodations and how to request them with and without help from your campus.

Visit the ACT Test Accommodations and English Learner Supports website at <https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act/registration/accommodations.html> for details about ACT exam accommodations and how to request them with and without help from your campus.

If you choose to request accommodations through the school, please email the College Board parent consent form and/or the ACT consent to release form to the counselor listed below.
