

Classroom News

Week of January 12th thru 16th

This week in Third Grade

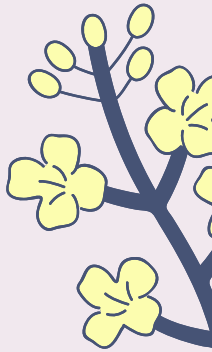

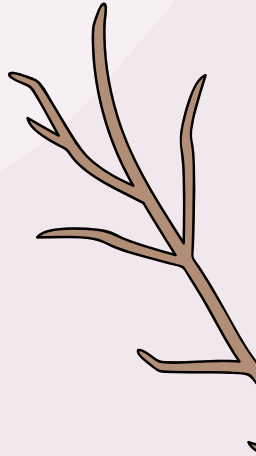

Reading: In Reading, we will learn how to recognize text structure for informational text and use the structure to organize their thinking.

Writing: In Writing, students will begin drafting their informational text using their previous brainstorming.

Math: We are learning how to apply understanding of properties of 2D shapes solve problems involving area and perimeter for polygons.

Social Studies: Students will be learning to recognize and describe how heroes, artists, and writers help shape our communities and inspire us through their actions, stories, and creativity.

Science: Students will compare and describe day-to-day weather in different locations at the same time.

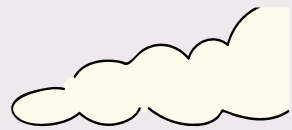

Upcoming Events

- 1.19 No school – MLK Jr Day
- 1.21 90th day of school

Upcoming Grades

- 1.26 Math MG#1 (study guide will go home on 1.20 in Tuesday Folders)
- 1.29 Reading MG#1 (study guide will go home on 1.20 in Tuesday folders)

Reminders!

Please send a water and a nutritious snack that is not messy to eat to school with your student daily. All snacks must be PEANUT FREE. Examples of this include: Goldfish, Pretzels or baby carrots.

