What we are learning:

- Reading: The readers listen to text sets and pay attention to big ideas and common themes across multiple genres. They will retell, discuss their understanding of a text, and share their ideas about how texts they read impact their actions and thoughts.
- Phonics: Review
- Sight word: Review
- Writing: The writers will write and revise in many genres. They will write moments in kindergarten.
- Math: The students will be able to draw conclusions from real life graphs and picture graphs. They will be able to collect, sort, and organize data into two or three categories.
- Social Studies: The students will learn about Memorial Day to understand why it is a special event.
- Science: The students will review about magnets.
