Week of August 25 Recap

This week, we read The Rainbow Fish, Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?, and Giraffes Can't Dance. We practiced comprehension and retelling with each story.

We continued exploring the letters in our names, and we talked about being kind and why it's important to share with our friends. We also discussed things we can and cannot do yet—and learned that it's important to keep trying. Everyone learns in different ways, and with practice, we will all be successful!

What We Are Learning this Week

Next week, we will read The Little White Owl. We will continue talking about what makes a good friend and family member. We will also read books about families, such as Our Class is a Family, and learn about the different kinds of families—our home family, school family, and class family.

We will keep practicing letter, color, shape, and number recognition, along with sorting, patterning, and subitizing.

Our Circle assessments will also continue.

We hope you enjoy the long weekend! School will resume on Tuesday, September 2 at 8:00 a.m.
