

February 23, 24 & 26

FBISD GT PARENT

Symposium

DR. C. MATTHEW FUGATE, KEYNOTE SPEAKER

University of Houston-Downtown, Assistant Professor
Educational Psychology

26 FEBRUARY | 10:30 AM

Symposium Schedule

All sessions will be virtual

Wednesday, February 23

7:00 PM - 8:00 PM: Opening Session: State of GT in FBISD

Dr. Laurie Westphal, Director of Gifted and Talented

Thursday, February 24

6:30 PM - 7:20 PM: Parent Led Sessions

7:30 PM - 8:20 PM: Parent Led Sessions

Saturday, February 26

9:20 AM - 10:20 AM: Parent Led Sessions

10:30 AM: Closing Session: There are 2E's in CrEativE: Divergent Hyperactive Giftedness

Dr. C. Mathew Fugate, UHD Assistant Professor, Educational Psychology

There is increased understanding of the importance of creativity in education for both the individual and society as a whole. In order to nurture creativity in the classroom, educators must approach education from a strength-based perspective. This session is especially beneficial for gifted students with ADHD.