The FBISD Virtual Learning Program form displays.

As a best practice, click "View Full Screen" located on the top of the form.

1. Review the overview information, and download the TEA Medical Certification for COVID-19 High Risk Exemption waiver (available in English and Spanish, depending on your preference).
2. Answer the first item: Did your child attend school face-to-face for any portion of the current (2020-21) school year?
3. Answer the second item: I want my child to participate in the Fort Bend ISD Virtual Learning Program for the 2021-22 School Year.
4. Review the Acknowledgement/Signature section, and confirm that your child qualifies to attend the FBISD Virtual Learning Program and that you are prepared to submit the required medical documentation.
5. Enter your name and the date. This will serve as your signature.
6. Click "Complete Step 1 and move to Step 2". If viewing full screen, the button is on the top, if minimized the button is on the bottom.

Medical documentation must be provided prior to final acceptance into the program. Any student wishing to apply must have a TEA Medical Certification for COVID-19 High Risk Exemption waiver (English) completed and signed by a physician by June 3, 2021. Instructions for submitting this waiver are forthcoming.
