

NOCTI and JROTC teamed up to develop an exciting credential that allows cadets to showcase real-world leadership and employability skills. Developed hand-in-hand with JROTC Subject Matter Experts, this credential is fully aligned with the core tenants shared across all military branches.

Available Only to Official JROTC Programs

This exclusive opportunity is available only to officially affiliated JROTC programs—giving cadets a powerful way to verify their skills and stand out as they prepare for their next mission, whether that's college, career, or military service.
