By the end of this session, you will be able to:

- Understand the components of an FBISD Schoology course
- Locate the various types of folders in Schoology
- Understand the structure of teacher folders
- Locate instructional materials and parent information

- Schoology Learning Management System for instructional delivery, communication, and progress monitoring
- Skyward is a student information system and includes schedules, the gradebook, the attendance record, etc.
- FBISD 1Link to support improved access through single sign-on and can provide data analytics on student engagement with learning
- Microsoft Teams for live, real time, synchronous instruction via videoconference
- Respondus LockDown Browser to secure assessments (inside Schoology)

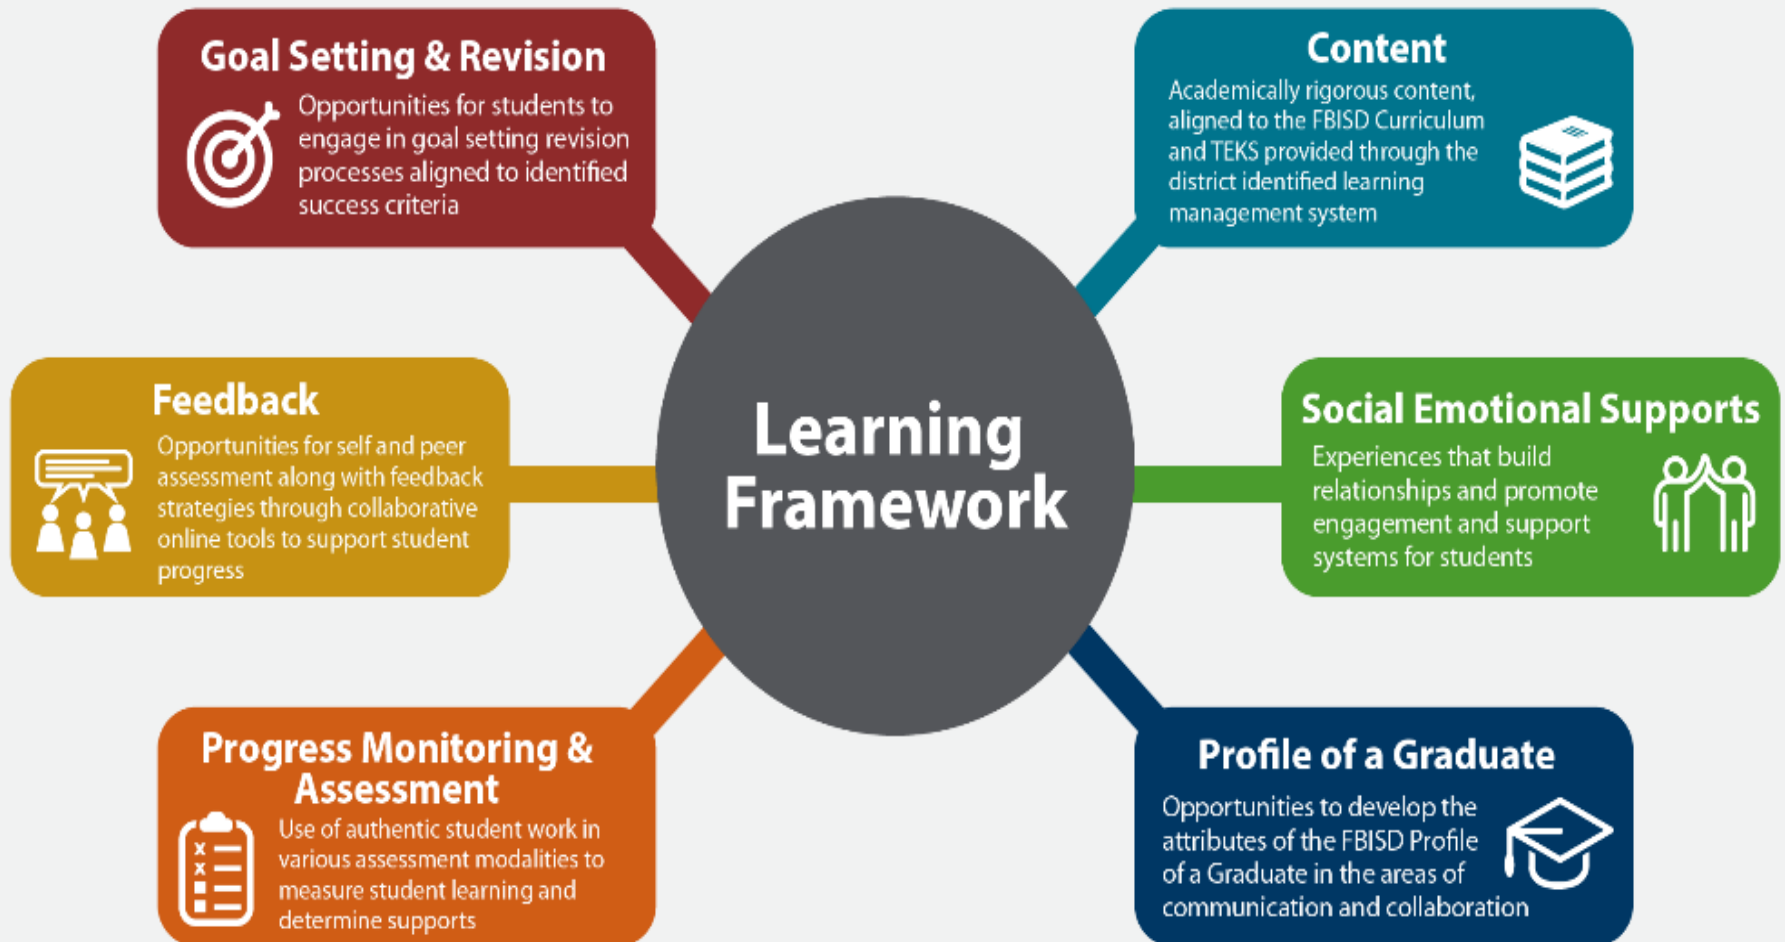

Purpose

- Required Learning Management System used to access course content and instructional materials
- Used to engage students in the FBISD Learning Framework
- Standardized communication system for parents

Schoology in FBISD

Learning Framework

Expectations for Schoology

- ✓ All classroom instructional content materials must be accessed within standardized folder structure
- ✓ Offer students an opportunity to collaborate and communicate using digital tools (i.e. shared documents linked in Schoology)
- ✓ Use of the calendar for students to track assignments and progress
- ✓ Provide authentic assessments to students in a variety of modalities, and when appropriate use Respondus Lockdown Browser to support assessment integrity
- ✓ Teacher/students provide feedback on student work using student ownership and technology tools with opportunities for goal setting and revision
- ✓ Provide regular, timely information to parents through the use of the Parent Folder and Schoology Messages
