Student Workspace

Questions to Consider:

Is there an area designated at home for online instructional activities?

i.e.: child's room, kitchen table, small area off of the main living areas, a nook that can be personalized, etc.

Is the area optimal for internet connectivity?

Is there a bulletin board or empty wall space to post schedules, calendars, and completed work?

Are there bookshelves, baskets or bins to help keep supplies organized?

Suggested Activities:

- ☐ Think about beginning each school day with an opening activity: i.e.: a moment of silence, a song, a poem, a quote, the Pledge of Allegiance, or review of the day's calendar activities. Keep it short and consistent.
- ☐ Limit outside interruptions: i.e.: no cell phones unless for schoolwork, no scheduled appointments, or outside visitors.
- ☐ Include regularly scheduled breaks: Schedule five to ten-minute breaks within the daily schedule. This is time for the child to get up and move around, use the bathroom, or get a snack. **The frequency and length of breaks depend on the age of the student and the individual learning styles.
- ☐ Include your child in planning and scheduling decisions: Give your child some of the responsibility for determining the daily schedule based on weekly assignments provided by the teacher. Give them an option on how they would like to get assignments completed based on interests, likes and learning styles. They can also help cleaning up the area at the end of the day by putting materials away, so they are ready and available for the next day.

Teams For Parents

What you need to know about Teams?

- FBISD defined platform for synchronous video conference opportunities for teacher/student collaboration
- Used to facilitate synchronous tiered learning experiences including intervention and small group instruction
- Replaces Zoom meetings, is integrated with Microsoft Office 365 and provides more secure access for students.

Teacher Expectations

FBISD Teachers will:

- ✓ Utilize video conferencing to deliver synchronous learning experiences on identified content to support the FBISD instructional model
- ✓ Link content created within Teams (i.e. shared documents) in Schoology, Microsoft Office, etc.
- ✓ Create and implement virtual respect agreements to establish norms for an online learning community and provide synchronous check-ins
- ✓ Provide small group collaboration and conferring through the use of purposeful talk protocols to support learning and peer/teacher feedback
- ✓ Collect observational and anecdotal evidence of student understanding of content in order to make instructional decisions

- Students will log into their Teams account and participate in synchronous sessions scheduled by their teachers on a daily basis, and complete asynchronous work through Schoology.
- Best practices for students when on Teams:
  - Mute microphones, until you need to speak, so all can hear the instruction.
  - Take turns speaking.
  - Use the chat to ask questions/respond.
  - Blur the background to protect the home environment.
  - Use the learning tools/tips to assist with engagement in the lesson.
  - Be respectful of each other in the online learning environment.
(Student Code of Conduct applies.)

- Teams provides an opportunity for a more engaging learning experience.
- There are several tools that will assist you and your student in having a quality learning environment.

Setting Microphone and Camera

Select Allow to let Microsoft Teams use your mic and camera for calls and meetings on this browser.

In a Teams Meeting

Adding a blurred background assists in protecting the privacy of your home and focuses students on the learning.

The option for a Blurred Background looks grey and fuzzy. Select this choice.

Closed Captions may be added to assist with reading the content.

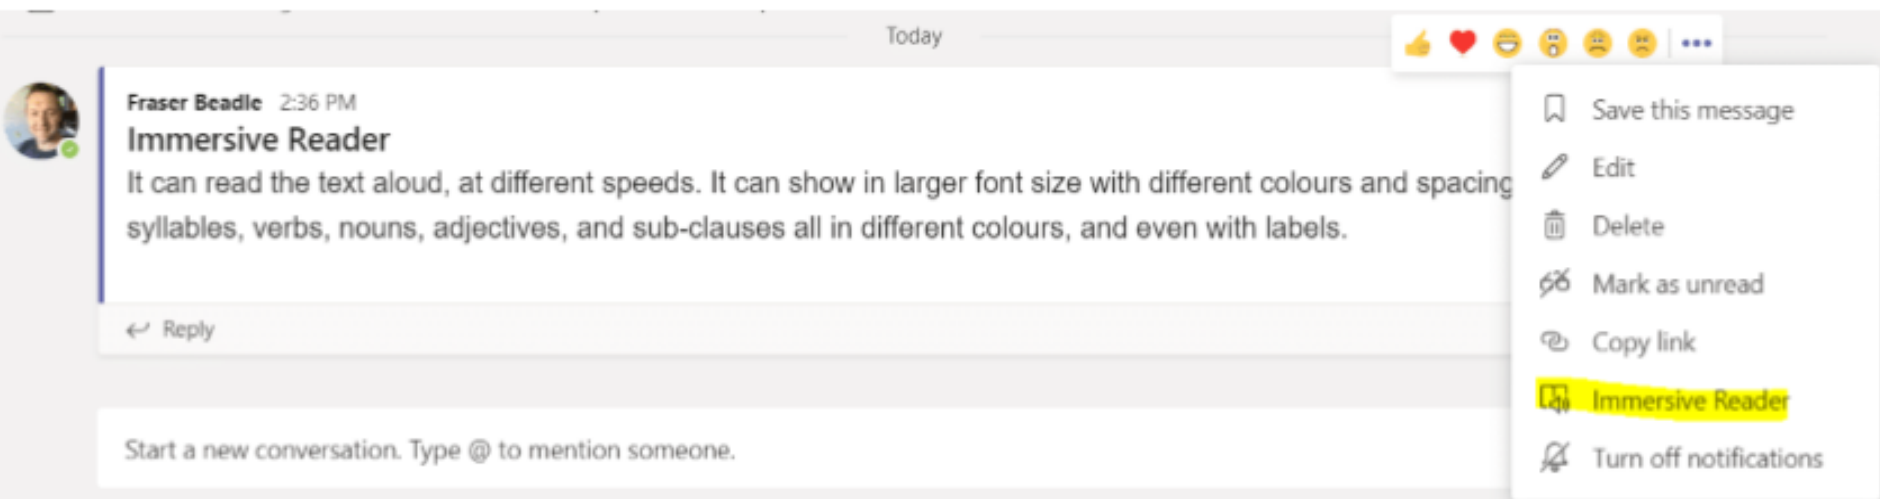

While in a meeting or synchronous class, students can use the ellipsis and select “Turn on live captions (preview).”

Captions/words will then show on screen.

Using the Immersive Reader in Teams

When in a Teams chat, you can access the Immersive Reader to translate a message to another language, access larger fonts and spacing or read text aloud.

The Immersive Reader tool translates from English to another language.

First, hover over the message and click on the ellipsis (three dots) at the corner of the message

Then select “Immersive Reader” from the menu

After opening the Immersive Reader, click on the book icon at the top right corner to open the reader.

Last, click the small arrow on the bottom of the page in the center of the screen to have the text read.
