EXAMPLE:

An example of a yearbook page for a girl. The page is framed with a white, scalloped border. On the left side, there is a large photo of a young girl in a black leotard and white tights, standing with her hands on her hips. On the right side, there is a smaller photo of the same girl sitting at a table outdoors. Above this photo is the title "Precious Girl". Below the photos is a block of text: "We are so proud of you! You are kind, caring, and thoughtful. We beam with pride everyday watching you grow up! You are going to do AMAZING things in life. Keep being you and never change! We love you forever and will always be your #1 fans. Mom, Dad, and Liam".
