^{*} Student must apply, be accepted, and commit to the Diesel program in order to take courses at Reese Center.

In Diesel Equipment Technology I, students learn the function and maintenance of diesel systems, as well as some background knowledge of automotive systems. The class provides knowledge, skills, and technology required for a career in the transportation industry.

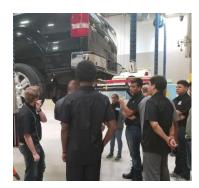

In Diesel Equipment Technology II, students learn more advanced function, diagnosis, and service of diesel equipment systems.

Additionally, students apply their technical knowledge and skills to expanded simulated or actual work situations.

In Career Preparation I, students have the opportunity to participate in a work-based learning experience that combines classroom instruction with business and industry employment experiences. Career preparation is relevant and rigorous, supports student attainment of academic standards, and effectively prepares them for college and career success.
