

Answer: Marqua Lucky

As a freshman, it was evident that Marqua had leadership qualities. He was always willing to help serve others, he was active in choir meetings, and participated in all choir functions. He was a “beast” when it came to fund raisers and he invested his time in anything that concerned choir.

