Here are ways for your campus to get involved during Autism Awareness Week!

- ❑ Get the word out: Share daily PSAs during morning announcements (included) as well as on the school marquee.
- ❑ Light It Up Blue on Monday: April 2nd is World Autism Awareness Day. Encourage your campus to wear blue to show your support. #LightItUpBlue
- ❑ Donate spare change at your campus because, “A Little Change Makes a Big Difference” Set up collection jars in classrooms or in the front office. Allow students, staff, and parents to donate spare change. Send home the E-Blast (included) to parents explaining the initiative.
- ❑ Decorate a Wall with a Puzzle Picture: Do an Autism Awareness bulletin board. Consider creating a puzzle out of various pictures that represent the theme “Different, Not Less” and showcase on a wall.
- ❑ Chalk the Walk: Show support by writing messages of “Different, Not Less” on school sidewalks.
- ❑ Color Rocks: Paint different size rocks different colors reminding students whatever they choose is perfect.
- ❑ Spotlight in the Library: Pull books focused on being “Different, Not Less” and place them on a table in the library.
- ❑ Puzzle Art: Make pictures using puzzle pieces.
- ❑ Puzzle Relays: Have students build puzzles through relay races in PE and at recess.
- ❑ Host an Assembly: Invite Hope For Three to come out and deliver their “It’s Cool to Care: Ambassadors for the Future” school assembly which educates youth about autism spectrum disorder.
- ❑ Host a Book Signing: Invite Grant Manier to your campus to do a book signing of his recently released book, “Grant, the Jigsaw Giraffe.” Contact Lori Sartain for Grant’s contact information.
