

Jason A. Dobrolecki
Candidate – Position 5

Jason attended Kelley School of Business at Indiana University where he earned his B.S. in Business Administration, as well as Butler University and University of Houston, Victoria where he completed his MBA in 2012.

Jason works as the Chief Marketing Officer for the Evelyn Rubenstein Jewish Community Center of Houston where he oversees traditional and digital marketing initiatives, branding, public relations and communications, membership initiatives and member experience, as well as leading CRM and technology initiatives, data analysis and information systems.

Jason has worked in the non-profit industry for 13 years. Prior to his current position, Jason served as marketing director for the YMCA of Greater Houston and the Indianapolis YMCA. Jason also runs a marketing and technology company, MarTech Collaborative, where he helps small- and medium-sized businesses with marketing and technology needs.

Jason served on the Board of Directors of the Tellepsen Family Downtown YMCA and the Houston chapter of Playworks. Jason has been a member of the Houston Chapter of the American Marketing Association where he served on the Non-Profit Marketing Special Interest Group Committee.

Jason lives in the Sienna Plantation community with his wife Lacey and their three daughters, Kalli, Malina and Iliza.