

High School

World Languages

At-Home Resources

Online or screen time resources

Offline/no screen time resources

WORLD LANGUAGES RESOURCES (SCREEN TIME OR WITH TECHNOLOGY)
Name of Site and Link	Description/Directions/Explanation	Subject
Canva https://www.canva.com/	Do some research on the benefits of being bilingual (or a similar topic related to language study) and create an infographic with your findings.	All languages All levels
Metric Conversions https://www.metric-conversions.org/	Investigate recipes online in the target language and make the dish if you can. (Great way to practice math, too, when you convert from milliliters to teaspoons, for example.)	All languages All levels
One of many sites with virtual museum tours https://hyperallergic.com/547919/2500-virtual-museum-tours-google-arts-culture/	Take a virtual tour of an art museum in a target language country. Who is your favorite artist there? Which piece of art speaks to you?	All languages All levels
Google Earth https://www.google.com/earth/	Use Google Earth and take a virtual tour of a city in a target language country. What is similar to where you live? What is different?	All languages All levels

	Watch music videos from artists in the target language. Choose one song and learn the words to it from memory.	All languages All levels
Digital Dialects https://www.digitaldialects.com/	This site has language learning and vocabulary practice games in many languages	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese Levels I and II, but could be for all
Duolingo https://www.duolingo.com/	This site can teach you new languages or help you build and reinforce your skills in one you already know.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, Latin All levels
Fort Bend County Libraries https://www.fortbend.lib.tx.us/	Go online for your local public library and check out eBooks in the target language.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese All levels, particularly upper levels
Alphadictionary.com https://www.alphadictionary.com/fun/tongue-twisters/index.html Omniglot https://www.omniglot.com/language/tonguetwisters/index.htm	Find tongue twisters in the target language to practice your pronunciation.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, Latin

	Watch a news broadcast in the target language and one in English. What stories are the same in the two broadcasts? What's different?	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, ASL All levels, particularly upper levels
Netflix https://www.netflix.com/	Netflix has many programs in other languages, and you can put on English subtitle or subtitles in the target language to help with comprehension. Try it both ways and see how much you can understand.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese All levels
YouTube https://www.youtube.com/	Watch cartoons in the target language. Cartoons are generally created for a younger audience so the language is not as sophisticated. Try Googling or searching YouTube using this phrase in the target language "cartoons in (language)" (e.g. dibujos animados en español)	All languages All levels
	Call or face time a friend who is studying the same language and try to have an entire conversation in the target language.	All languages All levels
	Follow celebrities on social media who speak the target language. If your parents allow it, try interacting with them in the target language.	All languages All levels
Magazines from Foreign Languages from Around the World https://shop.multilingualbooks.com/pages/magazines-in-foreign-languages-from-around-the-world	Read magazines or newspapers online in the target language. For lower-level students, try to find as many words and phrases as you can easily understand. For upper-level students, see if you can write a summary in your own words of one of the articles you read.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese (link here has Spanish, French, German)

		All levels
	Have a texting conversation with your friends in the target language.	All languages All levels
	Start a group story in the target language and email it to your friends. Each person adds a sentence or two and then passes it to the next person. DON'T USE GOOGLE TRANSLATE! USE WHAT YOU KNOW!	All languages All levels
	Google "Memes in (language)" in the target language (e.g. mèmes en français). Read several, then try to create your own. You can find many meme-maker apps online.	All languages All levels
	Watch a movie that you are very familiar with in English, but dubbed in the language you are studying. Since you are so familiar with the plot, focus on how much language you can understand.	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese
Schoology to access Clever to access This Is Language https://fortbendisd.schoology.com/ Click on waffle for the apps within Schoology, choose Clever, then choose This Is Language	Go to This is Language through Clever in Schoology and choose some videos to listen to or play Nutty Tilez	Spanish, French, German All levels
	Write a blog or make a vlog (video blog) of your days. What do you do/did you do each day? What is fun? What is hard? What do you miss most? What do you appreciate the most?	All languages All levels

WORLD LANGUAGES RESOURCES/ACTIVITIES (NO SCREEN TIME OR TECHNOLOGY)
Description	Course
Label everything in your room or house in the target language. Teach the words to your family members. Challenge yourself to use these words every day.	All languages All levels
Research the art of an artist from a target language country. Select one piece of art and draw or make your own version of it.	All languages All levels
Use Scrabble or Bananagram letters or make your own letter cards to create a crossword puzzle containing as many target language words as you can think of.	All languages All levels
Write a story in the target language. Try to add one or two sentences each day. When you are completely out of ideas or vocabulary, start a new story.	All languages All levels
Keep a journal of your day during this time. What do you do/did you do each day? What is fun? What is hard? What do you miss most? What do you appreciate the most?	Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, Latin All levels