

Mobile App v. Web Browser

Mobile App	Web Browser
Students can participate in all learning activities like: discussions, updates, assignments, and view files and links.	Students can participate in all learning activities.
Students can upload content from other apps on their mobile device with "Open In.." option.	Students can upload content from their desktop computer or other file source on their device.
Students can create a submission, record or upload media for assignments. Students can respond to course and group discussions when they click on "Submissions" and the "+".	Students can create submissions, upload content from their computer, and import resources from their "Personal" resources in Schoology.
Students can send a direct message to their teachers or staff.	Students can send a direct message to their teachers or staff.
Students can receive course notifications.	Students can set up notifications to be sent to their district email account.
Students can add to their "Personal" resources from their camera roll or photo gallery.	Students can add content from their computer or from the web to their "Personal" resources in Schoology. They can also create collections to help organize their resources.
Students can add events like tests, study groups, and projects to their "Personal" calendar.	Students can add events like tests, study groups, and projects to their "Personal" calendar.
Students can view grades from assignments that have been graded in Schoology. *Note: Schoology grades are not an official reflection of your course grade. Check Skyward for your actual course grade.	Students can view grades from assignments that have been graded in Schoology. *Note: Schoology grades are not an official reflection of your course grade. Check Skyward for your actual course grade.