

What is a Dual Credit course?

Dual credit courses are offered to students in FBISD through Houston Community College. Dual credit courses are college courses that you take while in high school. Since you are taking a college course, FBISD gives you high school credit.

FBISD Dual Credit Presentation

<https://www.fortbendisd.com/cms/lib/TX01917858/Centricity/Domain/2340/2021-22%20Dual%20Credit%20Orientation%20Presentation.pptx>

What are the State TSI requirements for dual credit?

To take dual credit courses students must meet Texas Success Initiative (TSI) standards. Dual credit TSI standards are:

			ACT Scores
			Composite Score of at least 23
EOC Scores	PSAT Scores	SAT Scores	19+ on the English section, exempt from reading & writing TSI
TSI Ready for Reading & Writing	TSI Ready for Reading & Writing	TSI Ready for Reading & Writing	19+ on the Math Section, exempt from math TSI
Score at least a 4000 on ELA 2 EOC	Score at least a 460 on EBRW section	Score at least a 480 on EBRW section	Example: Comp 23, ELA 18, M 24
TSI Ready for Math	TSI Ready for Math	TSI Ready for Math	Exempt from math TSI only
Score at least a 4000 on Algebra 1 EOC	Score at least a 510 on the Math Section	Score at least a 530 on the Math Section

What steps do I take to enroll in a dual credit course?

Follow the action item list below. The first step is to attend one of the mandatory meetings. Students who do not attend a mandatory meeting will not be eligible to enroll in the dual credit course.

Action Item

DC Interest/Orientation Meeting
(Must attend only one meeting)

Submit HCC Application

Apply Texas Application Guide

<https://www.fortbendisd.com/cms/lib/TX01917858/Centricity/Domain/2340/ApplyTexas%20Application%20Guide.pdf>

Submit the following forms:

HCC Dual Credit Waiver Form

FERPA Release Form

Dual Credit Student Commitment Statement

Bacterial Meningitis Vaccination (ONLY if you plan on taking courses at an HCC Campus)

You need to apply to HCC before completing these forms. You MUST use your HCC ID Number.

Dates above are for dual credit courses offered at TMHS during the regular school year only. All deadlines for summer dual credit courses are TBD.

Dual Credit options for TMHS Students?

- English
- US History