

A group of FBISD junior and senior high school students attended the Thornton-McFerrin Coaching Academy Student Seminar as part of an initiative to recruit future teacher/coaches. Students learned valuable communication, teamwork, and management skills as well as networked with program leaders and current members of the program. Two of our FBISD students were recognized among over 100 students for their excellent coaching skills during the session entitled coaching clinic stations.

- WHO: High School Students from Austin, Bush, Clements, Elkins, Hightower, Marshall, Ridge Point
- WHAT: Attended the Thornton-McFerrin Coaching Academy Student Seminar
- WHEN: October 5, 2022
- WHERE: Texas A&M University
- WHY: To learn valuable skills related to being a teacher/coach

