

Congratulations to Ridge Point High School on being named a Texas State Finalist for the National High School Academic Excellence Award for the 2nd year in a row! The State Champs/National Finalists for each classification will be announced by the National Football Foundation at the beginning of February.

